Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College
ALUMNAE LOYALTY AWARD 2012

Presented to
Ann Quimby Southworth ’52

The Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor Ann Quimby Southworth, class of 1952, with the Loyalty Award. You have helped the College and the Alumnae Association by generously dedicating your time, talents, and resources to the fulfillment of our mission and our enduring values. Your contributions to your class and to the alumnae community have been outstanding. For your loyalty and devotion over the years, we are deeply grateful.

Your classmates, the Alumnae Association, and the Mount Holyoke College community are pleased to recognize your long-standing, dedicated fundraising service to the College and your extensive involvement in class leadership and support activities. You have been active in many facets of the Alumnae Association over the years, but this award particularly honors your exceptional dedication to your class and its fundraising efforts. During the past several decades, you have been a committed development volunteer, continuously serving as a reunion gift caller, class agent, and on other special fundraising committees. You have played an integral role, showing leadership and support as president, nominating committee member, and holding several different reunion sub-committee chairs. You are described as a “go-to” person, guaranteed to do an excellent job, and willing to step up to help wherever there is a need.

You have embodied Mary Lyon’s expectation when she said, “Let one efficient lady, in almost any place, either alone or with one or two to aid her, commence the work with decision, and with perseverance carry it through, and it will be done!” Ann, it is with great pleasure and sincere thanks and appreciation that we present you with the Alumnae Association Loyalty Award.
