Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College
ALUMNAE LOYALTY AWARD

Presented to

Audrey Kellogg Hafford ’46

The Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor Audrey Kellogg Hafford, class of 1946, with the Loyalty Award. Throughout the years you have proven yourself to be an exceptional volunteer, dedicated to your class and Mount Holyoke.

Audrey, you came to Mount Holyoke from Girls High School in Brooklyn, New York. You served as both Secretary and Treasurer of the Class of 1946; you also sang with the Choir and Glee Club, and worked on the Llamarada staff. A chemistry major, you graduated cum laude and went to work as a lab technician at Cornell Medical School. In 1947, you married your husband, Robert, a physician, and raised five children. Years later, you returned to school to study social work at the University of Michigan.

In 1966, you became Class Treasurer and devotedly served in that role until 1981. Since 2006, you have been Class Secretary. You also have volunteered as a Class Agent, Reunion Gift Caller, and a member of the Nominating Committee. You assumed the duties of Reunion Welcome/Hospitality Chair for your 60th Reunion. Summing up the general consensus, one classmate describes you as “just marvelous.”

In all your volunteer roles, you have helped Mount Holyoke fulfill its mission and aspire to even greater excellence. Your classmates are grateful for all you have done—and all that you continue to do.

You have embodied Mary Lyon’s expectation when she said, “Let one efficient lady, in almost any place, either alone or with one or two to aid her, commence the work with decision, and with perseverance carry it through, and it will be done!”

With sincere thanks for your extraordinary efforts and for your ongoing volunteer service, the Alumnae Association recognizes you with the Loyalty Award.
