Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College

LOYALTY AWARD

Presented to

Mary Young Stamper ’41

The Alumnae Association of Mount Holyoke College is pleased to honor Mary Young Stamper, class of 1941, with the Loyalty Award. By generously dedicating your time and talents, you have helped the College and the Alumnae Association advance their missions and enduring values. It is with great pride that we pay tribute to your decades of service.

You came to Mount Holyoke from Erasmus Hall High School in Brooklyn, New York. You majored in chemistry and earned Phi Beta Kappa distinction. The summer after graduation, you married husband, Harry, and worked with him in publishing while raising two sons.

From 1971 to 2006, you served as treasurer for the Class of 1941. During that remarkable 35-year tenure, you consistently approached your duties with enthusiasm and handled them with efficiency. You have stayed active with the class, and we are grateful for your willingness to always lend a hand. Now living in Charlottesville, Virginia, you are affiliated with the alumnae club there. Since graduation, you have returned to Mount Holyoke for numerous reunions. Your devotion to Mount Holyoke has never waivered.

You have embodied Mary Lyon’s expectation when she said, “Let one efficient lady, in almost any place, either alone or with one or two to aid her, commence the work with decision, and with perseverance carry it through, and it will be done!”

With sincere thanks for your extraordinary efforts and for your ongoing volunteer service, the Alumnae Association recognizes you with the Loyalty Award.
